

BALSILLIE SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Agenda for 2018 Graduate Fellowship-GAC Symposium

April 26, 2018

Room 1-42

9:00 to 9:15                    Coffee and Refreshments

9:15 to 9:30                    Opening

9:30 to 10:30                Session 1: *Artificial Intelligence and Human Rights

- AI to support the rights of refugees
  - Sonya Ouertani, Christabel Polacco, Chloe Wynne
- AI and identifying and removing extremist content online
  - Rebecca Herbener, Sebastian Lacey, Matthew Markudis
- When AI systems go awry
  - Ruxandra Badea, Kristen Myers, Sulamita Romanchik

10:30 to 10:45                Break

10:45 to 11:45                Session 2: *Development and Migration

- Women's empowerment in conflict and post-conflict settings be promoted and/or strengthened
  - Devoniesh Aransevia, Abisoye Olukunle, Eric Tanguay, Karen Van Staveren
- Effective approaches to support the sexual and reproductive rights of adolescents
  - Sakshi Jain
- Systemic policy responses to displacement at a global scale
  - Michala Jansa, Amanda Klassen, David Meinen, Cortney Steinwand

12:00 to 13:30                Lunch & Keynote Address by Ambassador Paul Meyer,

13:45 to 14:45                Session 3: *Trade and the Environment

- Progressive Trade Agreements
  - Merran Eby, Kelsey Goodman, Stefan Hadad
- The challenge of universal energy access

- Meghan Entz, Curtis Jenken, Anthony Kubursy
- Advancing international law to support the Sustainable Development Goals and Paris Climate Change Agreement
  - Roger Boyd, David Caughey, Shahene Patel

14:45 to 15:00      Break

15:00 to 15:40      Session 4: Asia-Pacific, Progressive Trade, and Global Financial Imbalance

- China's vision of the international order
  - Justin Dell, Paul Ruhamy, Alex Suen, Mohit Verma
- Governing Global Economic and Financial Imbalances
  - Melsen Babe

15:40 to 15:50      Closing Remarks

DRAFT