

Other Academic Publications:

- Wilkes, J. (2022). Book Review: Animal, Vegetable, Junk: A History of Food, from Sustainable to Suicidal. Gastronomica.
- Wilkes, J., Durocher, M., Scott, C. M., & Knezevic, I. (2022). Editorial: Food Policy Environments: Discursive Effects, Material Consequences. Food Policy Environments: Discursive Effects, Material Consequences, 4.

Policy Publications:

- Wilkes, J, Bellamingie, P., Blay-Palmer, A., and Perttula, C. (2022). Food security through economic security: responsive social supports and protection. Part of the Building Back Better Series.
- Reid, H., Wilkes, J., Knezevic, I., and Robert, N Blay-Palmer, A., and Perttula, C. (2022). The need for a strong regional food systems. Part of the Building Back Better Series.
- Wilkes, J., Blay-Palmer, A., Knezevic, I., Reid, H., and Perttula, C. (2022). Public procurement for sustainable food systems. Part of the Building Back Better Series.
- Wilkes, J., Blay-Palmer, A., Aunio, A., Reid, H., and. Perttula, C. (2022). Integrated governance: supporting food policy groups in Canada. Part of the Building Back Better Series.

News Articles:

- Canadian Commission for UNESCO and UNESCO Chair on Food, Biodiversity, and Sustainability Studies. (2020). Now is the time to build sustainable food system resilience. iPolitics: Deep Dive.
- Canadian Commission for UNESCO and UNESCO Chair on Food, Biodiversity, and Sustainability Studies. (2020). DEEP DIVE: Infrastructure investments for a greener, more resilient and sustainable country: Ideas and considerations for Canadian decision-makers. iPolitics.

Governance Blogs:

- Perttula, C. and Wilkes, J. (2021). Succession Planning: Reframing a Crisis as an Opportunity. FLEdGE Blog.
- Wilkes, J. and Blay-Palmer, A. (2021). Good Governance and Renewed Multilateralism: including territories and excluding MNCs. Blog, CC-UNESCO Chair in FBSS.

